

KNOWLEDGE

Many people are perishing from lack of knowledge. Wherever you are, always take time to learn about your world. Know your origin, that of your friends and those around you. Be informed about where you're staying, founders of the place and their lifestyle. Most importantly, know about the kind of God you're serving. This information can help you to strategize your life both spiritually and physically.